RESPONSIVE READING	Heidelberg Catechism, Question 49
	Q (LEADER): How does Christ's ascension into heaven benefit us?
	A (ALL): First, he is our Advocate in heaven in the presence of his Father.
	Second, we have our own flesh in heaven as a sure pledge that Christ our head will also take us, his members, up to himself.
	Third, he sends his Spirit to us on earth as a corresponding pledge.
	By the Spirit's power we seek not earthly things but the things above, where Christ is seated at God's right hand

ADDITIONAL LYRICAL MEDITATION:

THERE IS ONE!

(Psalm 24)

© 1993 Bruce L Johnson

Who may ascend the Lord's holy hill?
for the whole earth is his, and the heavens are filled with the light of his glory - far brighter than ten thousand suns!
And who can come into his dwelling place?
Who could ever look into his beautiful face?
Woe to me and my people,
for we are unclean and undone!

CHORUS:

But there is One who is righteous
There is One who is good!
There is One who was made like us,
that he might cleanse us by his blood.
And there is One who is worthy of all glory, praise and laud
For there is One who is holy -- Behold the spotless Lamb of God!

Now lift up your heads, O you ancient doors,
for the King of all glory returns from his wars:
He who conquered the grave comes to take up his heavenly throne.
O people of earth - distant tribes and clans - draw near to him now, with pure heart and clean hands
Let us lift up our voices to worship the Lord God alone!

CHORUS (For there is One who is righteous....)
