ADDITIONAL LYRICAL MEDITATION:

MANY WILL SEE AND HEAR

(Psalm 40)

© 1993 Bruce L Johnson

I waited patiently for the Lord.

He turned to me and heard my lowly cry:

He lifted me up by the hand and gave me a firm place to stand;

He put a new song in my mouth of praise to my God.

Burnt offerings you never have asked of me,

and sacrifice is not what you desire.

But my body and heart I will give,

to serve you as long as I live,

And to tell all the saints

of the saving love of the Lord.

CHORUS:

Then many will see and hear,

and they will trust in God alone.

"How happy is he whose hope is in the Lord!"

How many and great are all the wondrous works your hands have done!

Were I to list even the least,

there would be far too many for words!

Withhold not your mercy and grace from me for foes again surround me like the sea.

But soon you will put them to shame;

Then all those who trust in your name will forever declare,

"The Lord is exalted on high!"

CHORUS

Now many will see and hear my song of praise to you, my God --

in wonder and awe and fear

at the great salvation of the Lord.

Let all who believe draw near:

Let your hearts now rejoice

as you lift up your voices in praise. . . forevermore
