Lyric meditation from "The Servant (Philippians 2)"

© 1995 Bruce L. Johnson

'Twas for your sake, O rebel race,
that living God was made like us—a mortal man;
The Master took the servant's place,
so willingly fulfilling Love's great command.
He donned the garments of a slave
and stooped into the dust, that he might wash our feet.
His Father's will the Son obeyed to death itself,
and shameful death upon a tree!
