

The End of Fear

Revelation 1:4-20

There is no certainty of anything in life. And that frightens us. Jesus, in his majesty and meekness, gives us courage to face anything in life.

1. What do we see in this vision of Jesus in Revelation 1?

Majesty

2. How does this vision help us now with our fears?

- a. He is for us

- b. He gives us meaning in our suffering

- c. Let's talk about fear again

3. What else do we see in this vision of Jesus in Revelation 1?

Meekness

4. One last vision ahead: The End of All Fear

Reflection questions:

1. When you are struggling, where does your mind typically go?
 - a. How do you think about God?
 - b. What are your typical feelings?
 - c. What are your typical ways of responding?
2. How do your fears motivate and control you? What do you fear the most?
 - a. Place that fear up against the majesty and meekness of Jesus.
 - b. Make that your first response to your fears.
3. Where have you seen your struggles and suffering bring forth good fruit? Do you recall those times when you are under pressure?
4. How does the truth of the resurrection help you in your suffering?