INVITATION TO THE FEAST

Isaiah 55:1-2

UNISON RESPONSE:

My soul yearns, even faints,
for the courts of the LORD:
my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Our gracious God and Father,
You care for the needy, you feed the hungry;
You delight to give good gifts to your children,
to nourish us, not with stones, but with true bread:

The eyes of all look to you,
and you give them their food in due season.
We look to you, and you fill us with honey from the rock;
You satisfy our desires with the good things of your house.

Yet how quickly we forget your kindness,
how easily our hearts turn away,
as we seek fulfillment in things that cannot satisfy.
Forsaking you, the only fountain of life,
we foolishly try to quench our thirst
from the broken and dry cisterns we have dug.

Lord, we are not worthy to gather the crumbs that fall from your table,
yet you prepare us a lavish feast;
We do not deserve to be called your children,
yet you kill the fatted calf,
you anoint our heads with oil,
you rejoice over us with singing!

So we ask, in your faithful love,
forgive our wanderings, heal our wayward hearts,
Draw us back and teach us to delight in you.

And as you once again spread your table in this wilderness,
Let us drink deeply of the waters of life,
flowing from the Rock smitten for us.

Let us feed, by faith, on the Manna from heaven.
Renew our strength, refresh our hearts,
and may we again taste and see that you, O Lord, are good.

In the name of your dear Son Jesus, we pray. Amen.
