

SERMON OUTLINE

Introduction: The purpose of this series of sermons is to focus on the actual events at the end of Jesus' earthly life. Try to use your imagination to picture what happened to Jesus.

I. Behold the Man (19:1-8)

- the soldiers mocked the idea of Jesus as King—but what is the real story?
- Jesus was displayed at the depth of his humiliation
- why was Pilate “even more afraid”?

II. The final authority (19:9-13)

- Jesus sets Pilate straight about who is in charge
- In the end, Pilate was not a villain but a politician
- God used a Roman ruler to decree the execution of His Son

III. Behold your King (19:14-16)

- Pilate was deeply shaken in the presence of Jesus
- the Jews totally sold out and denied their own faith
- Who is your King?

Conclusion: Use this occasion to affirm your loyalty to Jesus alone as King.
